

THE M EDITION

Back Again - Georgio's Cafe International

by Pat Dettmer

The spirit of Christmas could be felt in the air as 22 members of the club gathered at Georgio's Cafe International for the holiday gala on December 4. Since our gala was cancelled last year due to COVID, our group was ready to be able to mingle with each other and catch up with the latest updates in their lives.

Our private dining room was spacious and elegantly decorated for the holidays. Pre-dinner drinks were served by Georgio's wait staff as members arrived dressed in their holiday attire. Since our resident photographer, Terry Koral, was not present, amateur Pat Dettmer stepped up to the plate and captured some photos of those in attendance. They can all be seen on our Facebook page.

After awhile, lights flickered giving us a sign to sit down in preparation for our dinner. Beef tournedos seemed to be the favorite choice of the evening, with salmon and chicken also being offered.

Fresh baked bread and homemade pate, Greek salad, potato and a bouquet of fresh vegetables accompanied the main course. Assorted desserts and coffee finished off the evening meal. President Bill Roan welcomed the group and thanked everyone for attending the gala. Announcements of upcoming lunches in January and February hosted by the Beams, a discussion of future meander ideas and a reminder of club dues was given by Pat Dettmer. With business in hand finished, it was time to end the evening with holiday wishes before we traveled back home.
